

PCAutotune Privacy Policy

Your information, whether public or private, will not be sold, exchanged, transferred, or given to any other company for any reason whatsoever, without your consent, other than for the express purpose of delivering the purchased product or service requested.

We do not sell, trade, or otherwise transfer to outside parties your personally identifiable information. This does not include trusted third parties who assist us in operating our website, conducting our business, or servicing you, so long as those parties agree to keep this information confidential. We may also release your information when we believe release is appropriate to comply with the law, enforce our site policies, or protect ours or others' rights, property, or safety.

How We Use and Protect Your Information

We collect information from you when you place an order. You may be asked to enter your

- name
- email address
- create an account password
- billing address
- phone number
- credit card information

The information we collect from you will be used to process your order. The email address you provide for order processing will be used to send you information and updates pertaining to your order as well as your account login.

Your email address might also be used to send you information about product updates. If at any time you would like to unsubscribe from receiving future emails, you can find detailed unsubscribe instructions at the bottom of each email.

We implement a variety of security measures to maintain the safety of your personal information when you place an order.

We use a secure server. All supplied sensitive/credit information is transmitted via Secure Socket Layer (SSL) technology and then encrypted into our payment gateway provider's database. Your information is accessible only by those authorized with special access rights to such systems.

Cookies

We use cookies to help us remember and process the items in your shopping cart.

If you prefer, you can choose to have your computer warn you each time a cookie is being sent, or you can choose to turn off all cookies via your browser settings. Like most websites, if you turn your cookies off, some of our services may not function properly. However, you can still place orders by contacting customer service.

Compliance with the California Online Privacy Protection Act

We comply with the California Online Privacy Protection Act by providing a link to our privacy policy (<http://www.pcautotune.com/privacy.html>) on our home page and by updating the modification date below when there are changes to the policy.

Compliance with COPPA (Children's Online Privacy Protection Act)

Protecting the privacy of the very young is especially important. For that reason, we never collect or maintain information at our website from those we actually know are under 13, and no part of our website is structured to attract anyone under 13.

Terms and Conditions

PCAutotune, Inc. reserves the right to contact you via email for notifications purposes related to the PCAutotune application, product changes, updates and or problems with your PCAutotune account.
